John Doss Fly Fishers Arizona—President

John has been a key contributor in a variety of conservation, community outreach and fly fishing education initiatives in the state of Arizona.

Initially John joined the Arizona Fly Casters and being a veteran himself was heavily involved in Project Healing Waters (Disable Veterans) and joined the Board as the Communication Chair. John also launched a very successful Social media site called AZFishbook which has 5000+ members from around the world. What started as a site to connect locals and local clubs, has blossomed into a world wide communication tool to share Arizona fishing and Fly Fishing travel

Overlapping his service with AFC, John joined Trout Unlimited servicing on the Zane Grey Chapters as well as the State council chapter as communication chair, and Secretary for the Trout Unlimited State Council. He also teamed with Jim Walker to implement the Trout In the Classroom Project which has grown from 1 school to 40 schools in the past 6 years.

Recently he started a new organization "Fly Fishers Arizona " a 501c3 focused on Youth and New fly anglers Education, Conservation and Community Outreach. Over the past year Fly Fishers Arizona has educated over 500 youth and new Fly Fishing prospects. FFAZ has been involved in projects from Tucson to Cottonwood, AZ.

Ask me how I got into flyfishing!
